

An aerial photograph of Liverpool, UK, showing a dense urban landscape. A prominent feature is a long, multi-arched brick railway viaduct that spans across the city. Below it, a multi-lane highway interchange is visible with several cars. The surrounding area is filled with various buildings, including residential blocks and commercial structures, interspersed with green trees. The sky is overcast with grey clouds.

LJMU Drug Related Deaths Conference 2026

---

Public Health Institute,
Liverpool John Moores University